1. Transport and reconnaissance activity has been increased at the airfield near Vis. There are approximately ten pursuit bombers and several new pursuit planes of Yugoslav manufacture stationed at the field. The pursuit planes came from the aircraft factory near Zemun.
 2. A convoy of sailing vessels with auxiliary motors was observed in the Split canal north of the Island of Solta in early June 1951. The convoy was going to the Island of Lastovo under the escort of three Yugoslav navy corvettes.
 3. The vessels were carrying a hold cargo of cement and a deck cargo of iron and several steel bunker covers. Four of the ships flew the flag of warning indicating explosives. Each of these four ships carried a hold cargo equivalent to five or six railway carloads.
